HAR TLAGUE IN HONGKONG. To all appearances the plague retains its now being prosocuted and calling upon hold on the Collins. One unsatisfactory feature of the disease is its spread throughout the city, names cropping up in the most unexpected places. The application for an addition of 400 extra Sanitary officers, does not seem to have brought about any very entisfactory result. The total number of cases brought to light in the last twentyfour house amounts to only 48, and of these 47 have been taken to the Chinese Hospitel yielding too readily to Chinese demands. and only one unfortunate man, who scems to be without any friends or relatives, was taken to the Happeia . Not a case was taken to the European Hospital at Kennedy-town. The statistics for the twenty-four hours to noon to-day were as follow:--Hy- Kennedy Chinese To-gens. Town: City. Hospital, tali

A rough approximation gives the number of cases up to date at 393 and the number. of deaths at 320.

This afternoon a deputation of Chinese, restricted in numbers to a dozen individuals, was received at Government House by H.E. Sig William Robinson, Mr J. H. Stewart port having been in your hands for some the Prefect had reserved to himself the and day, are to telegraph at once down to Lookhart goted as interpreter. The deputatien again urged upon His Excellency the house-to-house visitation, and that sick Chinese should be afforded facility for leaving the Colony returning to their homes in the country. If the house-to-house visitation was to be continued they wished His Excellency an order that the women and the Chinese were not to be annoyed by the searchers as has been alleged within the last few days. His Excellency assumed A firm attitude towards the deputs. tion. He told them they were behaving very badly in attempting to put a stop to the measures the Government was taking in the interests of public health and on behalf of the interests of all residents in the Colony. Consideration had already been given to the wishes of the Chinese members of the community by allowing plague patients to be taken to a Hospital of their own, where they were tended exclusively by their own doctors. The house - to -house visitation could not be stopped, but must be insisted upon sanitary grounds. No restrictions whatever had been placed upon the Chinese. in the matter of leaving the Colony. If they desired to do so, and could manage to get into China, they were at liberty to do so so far as the Hongkong Government was concerned. He appealed to the deputation to use their utmost endeavours to get their | said-The jury have found you guilty of for a pagods, the burning down of our in question have even received sentence of fellow-countrymen to aid the Sanitary staff in its efforts to cope with the disease, instead of throwing obstacles in the way as they had been doing. plague has occasioned does not seem to be abating. Indeed, all the indications from which it is possible to form an opinion show that, among the Chinese community. the scare is increasing. It would be unreasonable to say that there is absolutely no cause for this; but it may at least be said that the panio is greater than it need be. There is some talk of closing the schools in the colony-at least those schools in which there are Chinese pupils. The Headmaster of Queen's College, we understand, has recommended the closing of the large and important educational establishment under his charge. The same course seems to be considered advisable "as regards all the Chinese schools in the Western District where at least lifty per cent. of the scholars have been withdrawn. In Kowlenn many schools have already been closed. Many of the scholars have been sent by their anxious parents to the country and Chinese residents are leaving the Colony in large numbers. Serious as the state of things undoubtedly is, the scare is greatly out of proportion to the facts. The wildest and most extraordinary defendant was indebted to the firm in rumpure prevail among the Chinese, and the irrational prejudice against the method pursued by European doctors in treating cases of plague seem to grow etforger every day.

Mr Pollock read the pleadings the suit; from which it appeared that the defendant, a merchant in Foochow. held 380 shares in the National Bank of China, Limited, and that he had failed to pay the five calls made, in respect of thesi shares. In his answer, the defendant set out that when the firm of Messrs Russell and Co. failed the firm was indebted in s sum of $100,000 to the Bink, while the sum of $50,000. Messis Russell and Co. were agents at Foochow for the Bank. Upon the failure of Mesars Russell and Co. the Bank endeavoured to get the defendant to admit that the debt of 860.000 was due to the Bank, but the defendant, having

RUMOURED RESIGNATION OF A PRO-MINENT OHINESE OFFICIAL.

The Chinking correspondent of the N. C. Daily News says :- There seems to be sonaiderable excitement, at the present time of writing, amongst native official circles at this port, with reference to a rumour that has been gaining ground regarding the contemplated immediate retirement into private life of the recognised head of the Tso or Hunan political party, H.E. Liu K'un yi. Goverpor-General of the three provinces of Kiangeu. Anhul, and Kiangel, and Superintendent of Trade for the Southern ports. Although this step has been known to have been contemplated since the winter of 1893, and especially since his recent illness, events, according to this rumour, have been precipitated, and the Vicercy will retire from official life in order to avoid a number of charges preferred against him by a certain Censor who seems to have found sufficient cause for laying his complaint against Llu K'nn-yi before the Dragon Table of the Emperor. The Throne could not well shelve the charges against this powerful satrap, and the least an edict of censure or possible degradation in rank, but with the privilege of retaining the post, will have to be promuigated by the Emperor.
